

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to require their stations to air something so blatantly anti-Kerry in the form of a news documentary is one example of the media monopolizing that we are suffering from due to the consolidation of the industry. This is not what we want as American Citizens! We want our air-ways back. What happened to time enough for one candidate means time enough for the rest.